Are You Ready? How about that Summer Home? Perhaps you're interested in a boarding house or a hotel. As the natural run of things you expect more guests this year than last, and in anticipation of such you've decided upon fixing up a bit. That's where we come in. While others are shouting away at bargains that are no bargains at all, we're entertaining you with the newest of best things at prices streaked through and through with economy. That's the question you have to settle and the comparison you ought to look for.

Our policy is to have everything that you're likely to want, and yet have nothing but what is right. This Special May Summer Home Furnishing Sale is the result of a great organization for getting goods at proper fountain heads, and at the most favorable time. Just when business slackened up for the makers we piled in our orders. Quantity is a stupendous factor in our operations, and buying Furniture, Upholstery, Mattings and Curtains by the car load for cash enables us to distribute values that no fair competition can match. Mr. Ward then introduced John La Farge, president of the Society of American Artists, who poked fun at scuiptors generally, and wound up by declaring that they were nearer the National heart than were even the leading men of his own profession. Charles R. Lamb afterward appealed for greater encouragement of the poor unknown artist, and deplored the narrowness of most artists esceities. Augustus Thomas, the playwight, made a witty speech, and William A.
